College Spring Art Show Opening April 19th

Barstow, CA – The Spring Art Show at Barstow Community College will begin on April 19th in the lobby of the Learning Resource Center on campus. The opening reception will begin at 5:30 PM. Music will be performed and light refreshments will be served. Admission is FREE!

Works of art by students will include original drawings, paintings, ceramics and other fine art objects created by the talented artists at the college. Lewis Goldstein, Art Instructor at BCC, said, “this will be an amazing show, with a lot more exhibits than we have had in the past.” The artwork will be on display in the lobby of the LRC until May 9th, 2017. For additional information, contact Professor Goldstein at 760-252-2411, ext. 7246.

Summer Registration is now open at the college, and several art and photography classes are being offered online and on-campus. Classes start on June 5th and go through July 27th, 2017
