Ability-to-Benefit Counselor Verification Form

Student Name: _____

Major: _____ ID: _____

Students who have not graduated from high school or earned a GED are required to show an ability to benefit from college-level instruction. This can be done by passing the Ability-to Benefit (ATB) test, which is taken via the academic placement test. If you did not pass the ATB, you may show an ability to benefit if you have successfully completed 6 degree applicable units (including transfer work) towards your declared program of study at Barstow Community College.

The above student completed the following classes that were applicable towards their degree or certificate:

Please note that MATH 101, READ 100-102, ENGL 101-102, and all ESL & ACSK courses are non-degree applicable*
