Barstow Community College observes Women's History Month
With the Queen of Rock, Virginia Woolf among others.

Barstow, Calif. – (March 17, 2010) In observance of Women's History Month the Humanities and History Departments at Barstow Community College are presenting International Women and discussing the career of signer/entertainer Linda Ronstadt.

Humanities instructor Dr. Melanie Hanson will host a visual and aural presentation on International Women on Thursday, March 25 from 12:15 to 1:15 p.m. in the interim Performing Arts Center. It will consist of volunteer readings on well known women figures, including Virginia Woolf.

History instructor Mark Cauble will show clips of the career highlights of singer Linda Ronstadt. Ronstadt is the recipient of numerous awards and accolades. She has won a Grammy Award, two Academy of Country Music awards, an Emmy and has had many albums reach platinum, gold and multiplatinum status. His presentation will take place on Wednesday, March 31 from 12:15 – 1:00 p.m. in room B18.

For questions regarding the events listed above, please call 252-2411, ext. 7263.
