

BARSTOW COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Public Information Office

EVENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Contact:

Maureen Stokes, Director of Public Information
760.252.2411, ext. 7350

Barstow Community College Observes Women's History Month: Humanities and History Shaped Through the Eyes of Women

Barstow, Calif. – (March 2, 2011) In observance of Women's History Month the Humanities and History Departments at Barstow Community College will explore the role of writers in the 19th and 20th centuries, and the role of women during the Colonial period.

Humanities instructor Dr. Christie Firtha will present visual and aural readings that demonstrate the rich depth women brought to English literature. This will be held on Thursday, March 10 from 12:15 to 1:15 p.m. in the interim Performing Arts Center.

History instructor Ramon Vasconcellos discuss the role that women played during the colonial era. The presentation Women in Colonial Spanish America and the Thirteen Colonies: Culture, Work, and Societal Limitations will be held in room B-1 from 12:15 until 1:15 p.m. on Thursday, March 24.

Barstow Community College is located at 2700 Barstow Road. For more information please visit www.barstow.edu

###