Barstow Community College To Host Black History Month Presentations

Barstow, Calif. – (Feb. 7, 2008) In observance of February's Black History Month, the college's humanities and history departments are presenting free, lunch-time topics for the community and college staff.

Join Ramon Vasconcellos Feb. 26 for his discussion on the Tuskegee Airmen of WWII at 12 p.m. in room S-1. History instructor Mark Cauble will discuss the life and history of William Wilberforce and the movie that commemorates his life, "Amazing Grace." This presentation will take place Feb. 27 at 12:15 p.m. in room B-1.

The Humanities department will present "Black Voices and Visions" Feb. 28 at 12 p.m. in the interim Performing Arts Center. "Black Voices and Visions" includes images, music, speeches and poetry of famous African Americans. All presentations are located on the Barstow campus.

For more information, please call 252-2411, ext. 7350.
