BCC Associated Student Body Seeks Entrants for Talent Show

Cash Prizes for Top Winners

Barstow, Calif. – January 3, 2008 The Associated Student Body (ASB) of Barstow Community College is seeking entries for the talent competition, “The Desert’s Got Talent.” The event will take place on Friday, Jan. 25 at 4 p.m. in the interim Performing Arts Center. Admission is $1. This judged talent competition includes cash prizes for the top three contestants ($300 for first place, $200 for second place and $100 for third place). Judges will be announced at a later date.

“There’s a wealth of talent in the Barstow area and this is one way to showcase it to the community,” states Jessica Powell, ASB president. “We’re looking for all levels of entertainment – dancers, singers, musicians, actors – to participate.” This is one of several community events sponsored by the student leadership group this semester.

Participants are required to fill out an entry application and $5 entry fee. Barstow area resident including Baker, Adelanto, Daggett, Lenwood, Newberry Springs, Yermo and Victorville are encouraged to participant. Contestants must be at least 14 years of age on the day of competition. Solo and ensemble groups are welcome. Application deadline is 5 p.m., Jan. 22. The entry fee is to be turned into the business office open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Applications are to be turned into the ASB office open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Contest rules, guidelines and applications are available in the ASB office or online at www.barstow.edu.
