Barstow Community College Hosts Free Landscaping Workshop Open to the Public

(Barstow, Calif. – June 2, 2008) The Alliance for Water Awareness and Conservation will be hosting a landscaping workshop open to all residents of Barstow and the surrounding areas, on Saturday, June 14 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at Barstow Community College. The workshop, entitled Drip Irrigation: Design and Installation, will be held in room S-9. The workshop is free of charge and lunch will be served to workshop participants.

The Alliance for Water Awareness and Conservation (AWAC) is composed of 25 regional organizations with a mission to promote efficient use of water and to increase conservation awareness. Barstow Community College is a participating AWAC member. The AWAC was formed in 2003 in response to growing water demand in the Mojave Desert. More information can be obtained on their website, www.hdawac.org.

For reservations, please call 946-7013 at least three days before the workshop. Barstow Community College is located at 2700 Barstow Road, and room S-9 is located in the science building.
